REF : Department's A-600, March 26, 1963

FSO-4

The name of Harrison M. HOLLAND should be added to the list contained in the Department's A-600 of officers who have contributed to the negotiation of the consular convention with Japan. During the past two years Mr. Holland worked as a principal negotiator under the direction of Consul General Blake, and from Mr. Blake's departure in December, 1962, until the signature of the convention on March 22, 1963, Mr. Holland was directly in charge of liaison with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs on the final text of the convention and the signing ceremony. Mr. Holland deserves great credit for his contribution to this treaty.
